

DESIGNING
Your Creative
FUTURE!

FREE

Careers in the Arts Workshop Florida State College of Music

The Florida Alliance for Arts Education is partnering with The Florida State College of Music to host a FREE Careers in the Arts workshops designed to inspire and guide middle and high school students in the pursuit of creative careers.

Featured Speaker: MK Haley, Entrepreneur in Residence,
College of Fine Arts, Florida State University

Mk Haley has been with The Walt Disney Company since 1994 serving primarily with Walt Disney Imagineering in both technical and creative roles with the Virtual Reality teams, R&D, Special FX, Show Quality Services, and the Disney Research Labs.

Also Featuring:

- Dozens of experts in creative careers sharing how to utilize creativity as a pathway to success in ANY career in over 20 breakout sessions for you to choose from.
- Hands-on interactive breakout sessions on pursuing careers in recording arts writing music, digital media, commercial music and audio engineering, arts management, interior design, music therapy, performing musician, music education, and more!
- Opportunities to network with representatives from Florida State University and tour the Colleges of Music and Fine Arts

February 6, 2016 – Florida State University College of Music

Registration Open at <http://www.faae.org/careers-2016>

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF MUSIC

