

Literacy in Action!

Teacher: Bridget Lyons

Integrating Sound, Movement, and Culturally Relevant Visual Text to Promote Literacy and Language in Children.

Audience: Professional Development for Teachers and Teaching Artists

$15 for the session

Bridget Lyons is the Arts/Literacy Educator for the Learning Alliance in Vero Beach. Learning Objectives for this session are understand how visual text in multiple forms can build visual thinking strategies, vocabulary, and comprehension skills; explore ways to integrate visual art, music and sound, and creative movement to engage children in multisensory learning; and understand how integrating cultural and geographical relevance within a literacy framework can promote context and connections among children.

