The Florida Center for Partnerships in Arts-Integrated Teaching (PAInT) is partnering with the Florida Alliance for Arts Education to host a FREE professional development session to teachers in Duval County. The workshop will focus on providing arts integration strategies for implementation in arts AND non-arts classrooms, using the Focus 5 Acting Right: Building a Cooperative, Collaborative, Creative Classroom Community Through Drama. All participants will receive resource materials for use in their classrooms.

Session Description

FOR TEACHERS GRADES K-8
LENGTH: 3 HOURS
This workshop takes the foundational elements of acting such as concentration, cooperation, and collaboration and creates a structured process, which can become the basis for effective classroom management every day. This engaging, step-by-step approach empowers students to take ownership of and be responsible for their own behavior. Learn how to help students build the skills necessary to establish a sense of self-control, accountability, and team building in your classroom. This workshop is recommended for any classroom based in active, social, cooperative learning.

PRESENTER: Sean Layne

Sean Layne is the founder of Focus 5 Inc, a national arts education consulting company. He holds a B.F.A. degree in acting and studied acting in London, England. Sean has worked in the field of arts integration for 25 years. He leads residencies for students K-8, presents workshops for teachers, and has designed training seminars for teaching artists nationwide for The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. He is also an Arts Coach for the Kennedy Center’s Changing Education Through the Arts program.

Space is available for 40 teachers.
